- 1.(18) We'll prove to you on fields of sport that Kipling hit the nail,
And the female of the species is as active as the male.
- 2.(19) The Flapper of fifty years ago, back through the dust of roses and of dreams, started her athletic day in this reck - less fasion --
- 3.(9) Her next form of violent competition was a hard work-out in a rose garden -
- 4.(8) Using the interlocking grip, she flung a wicked pair of shears.
- 5.(15) "Where are the snows of yesterday? Where are the girls of yesteryear? "Times have changed a bit in 50 years. Just a bit --
- 6.(5) Who called 'em "The Gentler Sex?"
- 7.(16) In turf tennis, one of the hardest of competitions, Miss Helen Wills of California, United States champion, is one of the marvels of the court -- Forest Hills, L. I.
- 8.(9) Miss Wills, on her service, has more smoke than a burning oil well.
- 9.(14) A brilliant rally between Miss Wills and Mrs.
Clayton, British star, in the international match at Forest Hills.
- 10.(13) And at golf they are making a million males who never broke 90 turn pale green with envy.
Shenecossette
New London, Conn.
- 11.(15) Miss Collett loses her appetite when she doesn't get a 78. What is YOUR best score? No, no, we meant for 18 holes?
- 12.(9) Adeline Gehrig, all around champion, tosses the basketball close to the record!
- 13.(16) "It was not like this in the olden days." Fifty years ago this was the last word in roustabout exercise for the average girl --
- 14.(9) And now, "Hiding-hell-for leather", polo is only a light morning's work-out.
Greenwich, Conn.

- 15.(13) Something to work up an appetite as they ride like Sande or Sloan and hit at the ball like Milburn.
- 16.(9) Only a few years ago a girl considered this the last word in athletic thrills --
- 17.(6) She dared the perils of the deep with reckless skill.
- 18.(7) Today we have Miss Aileen Riggan, Olympic diving champion.
Long Beach, L. I.
- 19.(12) The world's most famous swan of the air spinning poems of motion between spring-board and water.
- 20.(12) This brilliant Olympic star is a picture no artist can paint. That is why we used a camera.
- 21.(16) Just a few years have brought this mighty change. Old fashioned ghosts today must wonder what tomorrow will bring to women's sport.
